A CHAPTER IN THE GENEALOGY
of the MORSE
FAMILY

FOREWARD

My inspiration for compiling this genealogy came at a time when I had several letters to write.

"Who are my relatives, anyway? How many of them are living, and where are they?"

My first thought was to devise some vivid method or form, drastically deviating from the usual run of such compositions, and in the two years it has taken me to assemble this incredible mass of vital statistics, I have mailed out hundreds of communications.

Most of you were intensely enthusiastic, and responded immediately to my appeal for information, while others were quite reluctant, and wanted to know more about the nature of my queries, for, after all, I was really a stranger to them—they had never heard of me.

But I was full of optimism and felt that sooner or later I would be able to collect all the necessary data needed.

I trust I haven't appeared to some of you as being too fastidious, because I had to write two or three letters in order to get an accurate record, as I did not want to turn in an ambiguous report.

Some genealogists of the past had an abominable desire to vent their causticity on a few of their poor unfortunate kinfolk for wrongdoing, while eulogizing some of the more wealthy, guilty of committing the same errors.

Then delving into personal lives, they would come up with some ancient divorce reports and much space was given to court proceedings. To me, offering that kind of genealogy for sale was simply capitalizing on human misery.

Now who of our time cares a hoot for such conglomerable hodge-podge? No place for blasphemy here.

Are there any of us today who are so Almighty sanctimonious that we dare "call the shots" on other people's morals?

I have been ever solicitous in my efforts to bring you something different. Here is a reference book that may settle many friendly family disputes. It is not necessary for me to enumerate here all that is in the record. Read it carefully, but don't be too critical if I am guilty of being both a solecist and a numerist. I did the best I could with what little I had to work with.

And I learned, through this medium, that I have mighty fine relatives. I don't believe there is any man who can point with pride to a more gracious, to a more honorable and to a more understandable family of kinfolks than I have.

Many, many thanks to each and every one of you for your splendid co-operation, and God bless you all. R. S. M.

The Name Morse

The original name was "de Mors" and is both German and Norman, but the English settlers of the name were Normans. It historically occurs in 1358 in the reign of Edward the Third. The name is known as early as 1200.

The "de" by the English usage was gradually dropped, but not prior to 1553, and "e" was added later, both in old England and New England to adapt it to the genius of the English language.

The Morses, (Moss, Mors, Morss), lived in England, Scotland and Northern Ireland as early as 1428, but Anthony Morse, with his brother William, sailed from England on the ship James, April 5, 1635, and arrived in Boston, Mass., June 3, 1635, and was made freeman of the colony of Massachusetts on May 25, 1636. He located at Newbury, Mass., and died there Oct. 12, 1686. He had 10 children. This is considered the first generation. John Morse Sr., born June 21, 1814, is of the seventh generation.

Historical

Jedediah Morse was a brother to Isaac Morse. He was the father of Prof. Samuel F. B. Morse (inventor of the telegraph—Morse code.) He was also father of American geography, and one of the founders of the Puritan Theological School at Andover.

John Morse Sr. and Prof. Samuel F. B. Morse were cousins.

A Prayer

(For our family reunion at Battle Creek on Aug. 28, 1948.)

By ROSS S. MORSE

O, Lord, our Heavenly Father, we assemble ourselves before Thee now with hearts overflowing with gratitude and praise. We thank Thee Thou hast permitted so many of us to meet again. Bless those who are absent from us today and give comfort to those who are afflicted with worldly pain.

We thank Thee for this beautiful day, for the singing birds and fragrant flowers, for they remind us of the land that is fairer than day, where the sun never sets and the leaves never fade, where there are no clouds nor storms, and where the heart never aches and tears never flow. Help us, O Lord, to spend this day in a manner worthy of our Christian calling.

Help us to feel the exhilarating bliss of Thy near presence, and to breathe the fragrance of Thy eternal love.

We thank Thee for every deliverance from danger or sickness, for every kindness we have received and for every pleasure Thou hast bestowed.

Give us wisdom, O, Lord, that we may have a right judgment in all things, and Thy grace, that we may better be able to do what is best for ourselves and our families.

May we be at peace with all men, and when the light of our earthly life shall end, may we fall asleep in our Saviour, to awaken after His likeness, in glory.

Counsel, guide, sustain and deliver us through Jesus Christ, our Lord—Amen.

Our Great Grandmother

Eunice Doolittle Morse

(From the St. Claren Republican, Angola, Ind.)

Died in Angola, Ind., Sunday, July 13, 1884, after a lingering illness of nine months, Mrs. Eunice Morse, aged 88 years, 11 months and 21 days.

The deceased was the daughter of Ezra and Sarah Doolittle. Her birthplace, the town of Cheshire, Conn., in which place she resided until the 10th of Dec., 1811, when she was married to Mr. Isaac Morse, with whom she moved to the state of New York, and from thence during its early settlement to Michigan, ultimately making her home in Northern Indiana.

She was the mother of seven children, five boys and two girls, of whom one daughter and one son were gathered to the grave before she herself was called away. Her husband died Dec. 4, 1854.

It was a great anticipation to her to be so kindly cared for during her declining days in the family of her son, Mr. Edwin R. Morse, whose wife and daughter were untiring in their loving ministrations.

(Eunice Doolittle Morse was the mother of John Morse Sr.)

Alphabetical list of those of the 9th generation

Preceding each name is a number. George Morse being the oldest, starts with No. 1, and his children, grandchildren and great grandchildren follow under that number. Then Sarah L. Morse, No. 2, and so on down to John Morse Jr. No. 11. This number identifies you with the correct member of the John Morse Sr. family, or eighth generation. (See page 17).

MOTHERS

Teach your children to memorize the 23d Psalm.

13th Chapter of 1st Corinthians

6th Chapter of Proverbs, 16-20 verses

And this little Sunday School yell, and the verses therein:

Say my chum, have you seen, 2d Timothy 2:15?

1st Thesoloniens 5:22, will tell you exactly what to do.

To those of us left of the 9th generation

Our Grandparents

JOHN SR. and SUSAN HAINES MORSE
Reproduced from an old tin type taken over 110 years ago

The parents of John Morse Sr., Isaac and Eunice D. Morse, came from the state of New York and settled in Southern Michigan and Northern Indiana.

John Morse Sr. and Susan Haines were the parents of 11 children, and it is around this family that my genealogy is centered.

TO ALL MY RELATIVES--GREETINGS:

By this time, perhaps, all of you have received your copy of The Morse Genealogy. I tried very hard to eliminate as many errors as possible, but some undoubtedly slipped by. I wish that each one of you would go through your books and if you find any errors please make a notation of them.

But please state the page number in which the error occurs.

There are a number of dates missing under the heading of "Our Departed Ones." If it is possible for you to fill in the correct dates of any of the deceased, please do so. Then send all of your corrections back to me.

Keep an accurate record of all births, marriages and deaths and later on I will try and reprint the genealogy with all corrections made, together with any new births, marriages and deaths.

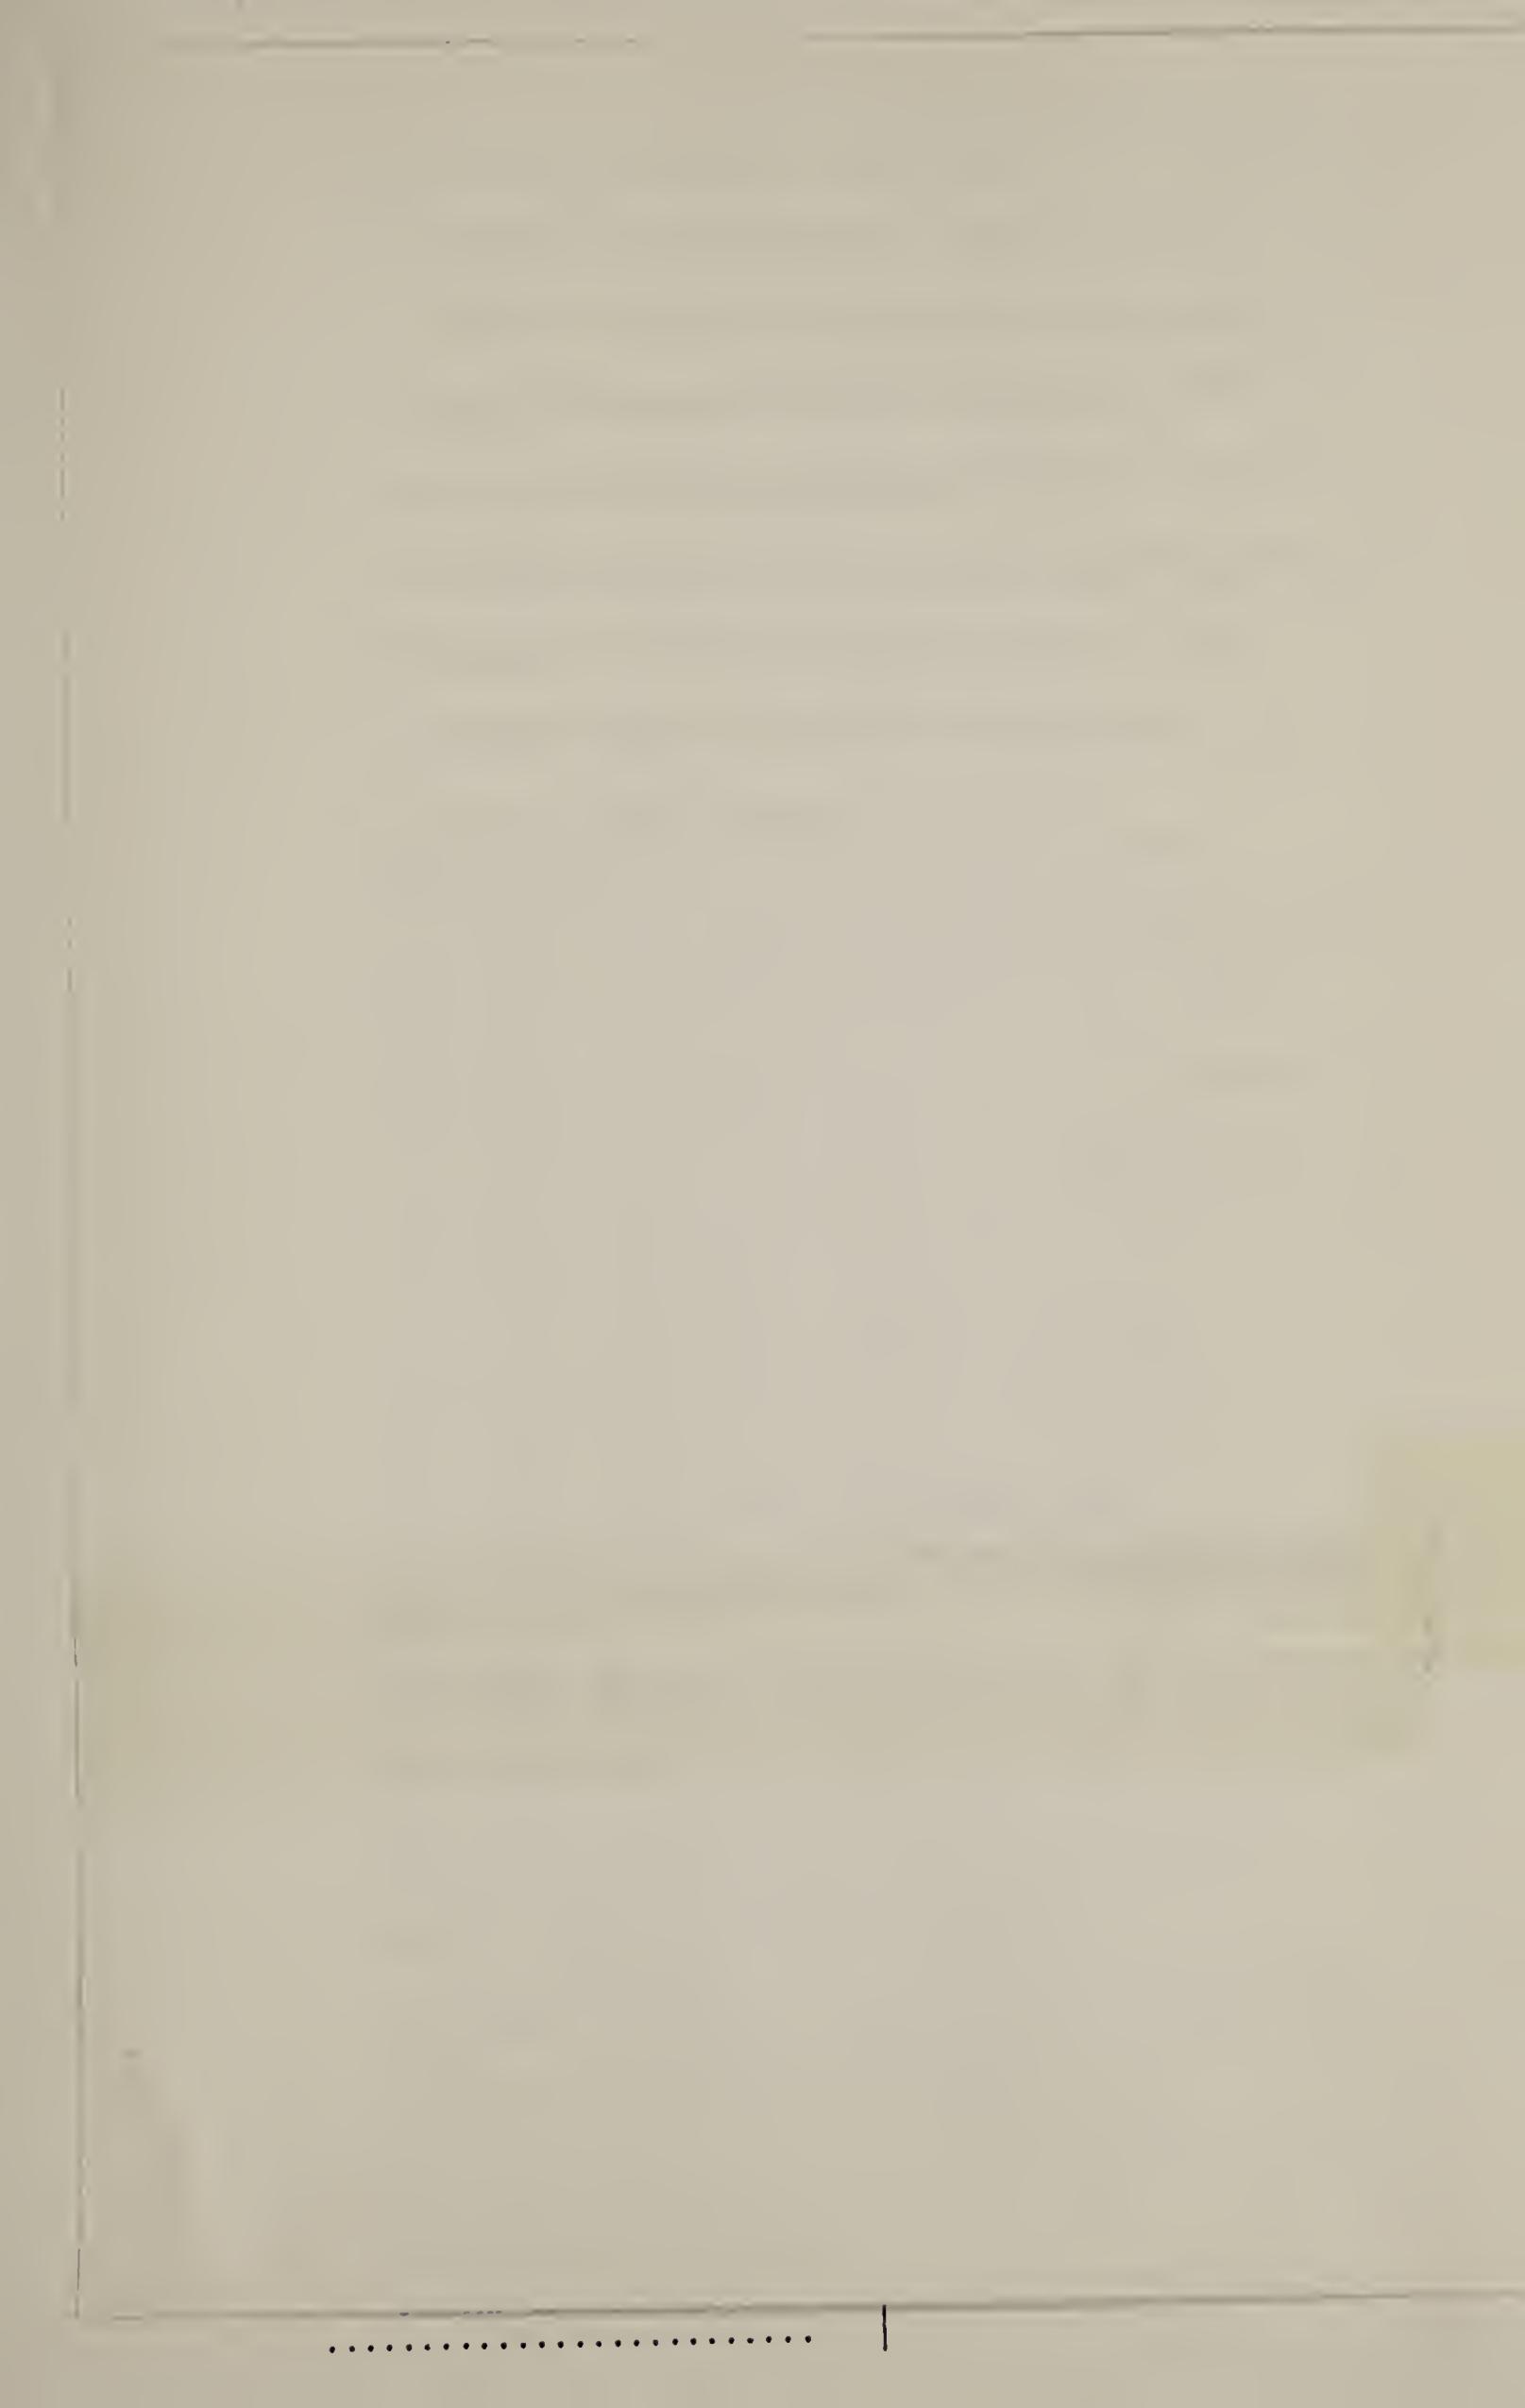

I am sending you also a proof with the names and addresses of all our relatives. There may be some that I have missed. If you know of any, please send them to me and I will get them in type form and mail out to you, and you can add them to the list. If there are any corrections to be made in the list, or if you have a change of address, please let me know of that, too.

From time to time, I will try and mail out to each of you any news I may get from the rest of the family. So be alert. It is up to you. I will do my part.

Sincerely yours,

ROSS S. MORSE.

The Morse Family Song

(Sent In by Hazel Morse, Jackson, Mich.)

For Our Family Reunion at Battle Creek on Aug. 28, 1948

Sing It to the Tune of "Smile A-while"

The Morse family are just a common few, and I'm sure they'll always welcome you.
Some are getting old and frail, but they all have hit the trail.
So pepper up and jump around a bit, as you were and just before you sit,
Reach right out to some one near, shake their hand and smile.

CHORUS

When you smile you drive away the blues; there's no time to worry, fret or stew.
If you smile it won't be long, till me meet again.

Smile awhile and give your face a rest, stretch awhile and ease your manly chest;
Raise your hands up toward the skies, while you wag your head so freely
Limber up and jump around a bit, as you were and now before you sit
Reach right out to some one near, shake their hand and smile.

ALPHABET BIBLE VERSES

- A—A soft answer turneth away wrath, but grievous words stir up anger.
- B—Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good.
- C—Come unto me all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.
- D—Do unto others as ye would, that they would do unto you.
- E—Every good and every perfect gift is from above.
- F—Fear not little flock, for it is thy Father's good pleasure to give thee the Kingdom.
- G—God is a spirit, and they that worship Him, must worship Him in spirit and in truth.
- H—Honor thy father and thy mother that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.
- I—I love them that love me, and those that seek me early shall find me.
- J—Judge not that ye be not judged.
- K—Keep thy tongue from evil, and thy lips from speaking guile.
- L—Lying lips are an abomination unto the Lord.
- M—Mark the perfect man and behold the upright.
- N—Neglect not the gift that is in thee.
- O—Open rebuke is better than secret love.
- P—Pleasant words are as a honeycomb, sweet to the soul and health to the bone.
- Q—Quench not the spirit.
- R—Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth.
- S—Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not, for of such is the Kingdom of Heaven.
- T—Teach me Thy will, O, Lord, lead me in a plain path.
- U—Use hospitality one toward another.
- V—Verily, verily I say unto you, except ye be converted and become as little children, ye cannot enter the Kingdom of Heaven.
- W—Wise men lay up knowledge.
- Y—Ye are the children of the light and the children of the day, ye are not of the darkness, nor of the night.
